ABOUT

Nikhil De '23 is a senior in the Computer Science Department from Forth Worth, Texas receiving a certificate in Jazz Studies. He plays the mandolin & violin in Jazz Small Group X and the bass in Small Group Z. Outside of the music department, he is a member of the Princeton Sailing Team and a DJ on WPRB.

Chloe Raichle '23 is a senior from New Jersey concentrating in Ecology and Evolutionary Biology. She plays bass in a variety of musical contexts from jazz gigs in NYC to collaborations with jazz festivals in the tristate area. On campus, she performs with Small Group 1 as well as Triangle Pit, PUP pit, and recently in collaboration with the Toni Morrison symposium event. She studies with Matthew Parrish. Chloe will be joining the faculty at NYU in a few months and will be pursuing a career in medicine in the meantime!

Evan DeTurk '23 is a saxophonist, composer, and arranger from Seattle, Washington majoring in Molecular Biology and pursuing a certificate in Jazz Studies. At Princeton, Evan has studied under David Liebman, Rudresh Mahanthappa, Darcy James Argue, and Miles Okazaki. He also leads the funk band Gemenon and plays saxophone in the indie neo-soul band Hot Jupiter.

Rohit Ooman '24 is a guitarist from Brooklyn, NY. He is a junior in the Economics department and has performed with Michael League, Wyclef Gordon and Wynton Marsalis.

Alex MacArthur '25 is a sophomore from Newton, Massachusetts who plans to declare a concentration in History with certificates in French Language & Culture, European Cultural Studies, and Values & Public Life. He is a trained jazz drummer and trumpet player, and has performed in a wide array of events and competitions ranging from the Panama Jazz Festival to the Mingus Competition. He is also a musical omnivore, and enjoys listening to and studying everything from early music to dancehall. He currently plays drums for Hot Jupiter and Gemenon, and studies under Vincent Ector. His principal academic areas of interest are contemporary and 19th century politics, European and postcolonial intellectual history, and literary history. Outside of his studies, Alex enjoys cooking, reading, (re) watching films, going to concerts, and playing folk music 'round the bonfire with his closest friends.
